

Discover your own backyard . . .

Rich history, stunning coastlines, old world charm, Acadian hospitality and delicious lobster are yours to be discovered this summer

New Brunswick

Breathtaking scenery, spectacular Natural Wonders and pristine environments such as the Bay of Fundy make the New Brunswick experience one that visitors will simply never forget.

New Brunswick's three coastlines together span 2,065 km, just a few steps away from the vibrant local communities.

Where else but in New Brunswick can you find such a unique fusion of Scottish, Irish, Acadian, Aboriginal, Brayonne and Loyalist cultures?

Connect with New Brunswick's spirited past on the streets of their cosmopolitan cities and friendly hometowns. All crafted from the past and celebrated in the present in internationally recognized museums and galleries or down at the wharf when lobster boats come in with their irresistibly delicious catch of the day.

Nova Scotia

In a land brimming with energy, sea-coast traditions and old-world charm, the hospitality of Nova Scotia's people is legendary.

Relive the stories of the province's rich living history through world-class attractions. You can still hear the battle cries of 1744 at Fortress Louisbourg, North America's largest historic reconstruction. Stand in awe of the pageantry and precision of the 78th Highlanders at the Halifax Citadel, Canada's most visited National Historic Site.

Spend a day along the Bay of Fundy, home to the highest tides in the world! In one moment you can see the humpback whales play and in the next, walk on the ocean floor. Discover fossils and semi-precious stones as you walk along the Joggins Fossil Cliffs, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

A visit to Nova Scotia would not be complete without sampling the fresh catch of the day, Digby scallops, lobster, planked salmon . . . and more!
