

PURE: SASKATCHEWAN

Saskatchewan may be many things, but flat and boring is one of them. In Saskatchewan we like to do things big! With 100,000 lakes and rivers, 137 breathtaking parks, 250 golf courses - the most per capita in North America - over 250 museums, never-ending expanses of untouched land, and of course, our Living Skies, the possibilities are endless. Catch the big one, kayak, canoe or house boat on one of our many lakes and rivers. Learn the storied history of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at our many historic sites and the RCMP Heritage Centre. Visit Saskatoon and Regina for great events, shopping and cuisine. Or, witness the spirit of Saskatchewan as it is reflected in the culture, history and traditions of our First Nations and Métis people.

UNFORGETTABLE MANITOBA

Welcome to Manitoba - land of untouched nature, majestic wildlife, rich history and vibrant culture. Discover the diverse landscapes of Manitoba, from the pristine beaches on Lake Winnipeg, to the rugged beauty of the Canadian Shield, to the prairie's endless skies and golden fields.

In northern Manitoba make your way to Churchill, consider the polar bear capital of the world. Churchill is one of the few human settlements where polar bears can be observed in the wild. Spend quality time with the bears while on a tundra vehicle designed specifically for polar bear viewing. When summer comes to Churchill, so do thousands of birds, blooming flowers and beluga whales. Listen for their high-pitched whistles, clicks and chirps. For the ultimate adventure, kayak or snorkel alongside these friendly and curious whales.

Experience Manitoba's history and culture in Winnipeg, a meeting place that goes back thousands of years. Explore the city's quaint corners and bustling centres. Connect with a mosaic of cultures at the province's best festivals, like Folklorama, the world's largest multicultural festival or le Festival du Voyageur, a winter celebration of the fur trade era.

Canadian Travel Agents Vote Banff as Top Spot Third Year as Canada's Favourite Attraction

Banff, Alberta, Canada (July 5, 2010) –Canada's iconic Banff National Park has been chosen as the top domestic attraction for the third consecutive year by Canadian travel agents in the annual Travel Agents Choice Awards.

Now, in its 11th year, the 2010 Travel Agents Choice Awards survey has become a landmark in the industry, giving voice to Canadian travel agents to vote for their favourites in 24 different categories including favourite industry suppliers, organizations and destinations.

Nearly 4,000 travel agents across the country cast their votes through ballots in Travel Press and Travel Courier and online at www.travelpress.com and recognized Banff National Park as the top attraction in Canada.

"Travel agents play a key role in bringing Canadian visitors to Banff and Lake Louise," says Julie Canning, president and CEO of Banff Lake Louise Tourism. "The passion and dedication that they bring to the industry is appreciated and we are truly grateful that agents recognize Banff National Park as the top Canadian destination for their clients."

Along with the Travel Agents Choice Award Banff National Park has been recognized with the following in 2010:

- Travelocity's Cure for Cabin Fever in Canada
- #1 Outdoor & Adventure Destination in Canada by TripAdvisor
- #4 Outdoor & Adventure Destination in the World by TripAdvisor
- Bronze winner for Travel/Tourism/Nature website by Summit International Awards
- Placed on MONOPOLY: Canada Edition board game

To download the full list of winners visit www.travelpress.com or to learn more about Banff National Park visit www.banfflakelouise.com.
