Spotlight on: Nova Scotia...

Nova Scotia.....where the salt of the sea meets the salt of the earth.

In a land brimming with energy, sea-coast traditions and old-world charm, the hospitality of Nova Scotia's people is legendary.

Relive the stories of our province's rich living history through our world-class attractions. You can still hear the battle cries of 1744 at Fortress Louisbourg, North America's largest historic reconstruction. Stand in awe of the pageantry and precision of the 78th Highlanders at the Halifax Citadel, Canada's most visited National Historic Site.

Get to know the amazing heart and mind behind the inventor of one of the most important communication breakthroughs of all time, the telephone. Alexander Graham Bell summered in Baddeck, Cape Breton and the museum reflects his inquisitive mind.

Spend a day along the Bay of Fundy, home to the highest tides in the world! In one moment you can see the humpback whales play and in the next, walk on the ocean floor. Discover fossils and semi-precious stones as you walk along the Joggins Fossil Cliffs, our newest UNESCO World Heritage Site. And Lunenburg, with its blazing red buildings along the waterfront is the home of the famous Bluenose schooner.

A visit to Nova Scotia would not be complete without sampling the fresh catch of the day - Digby scallops, lobster, planked salmon....and more!

If the sea can shape an entire way of life, imagine what it can do for you!
